A Poster Making Competition on the theme 'Say no to Violence' was held on 1st October, 2021 for B.Ed., M.Ed. and PGDG&C students through online mode of Google meet. The program started with Dr, Rajni Thakur welcoming the Principal, Dr. A.K. Srivastava for the address on the ideology of Mahatama Gandhi. He asserted that the Gandhian thoughts are still relevant in the present times. He also added that his principles of truth and non-violence are to be practiced not only in actions but thoughts as well. Further, Dr. Dipanshu Sharma shared his valuable thoughts on Gandhian philosophy of life. Afterwards Ms. Sonika gave instructions and coordinated with students for the poster making competition and compiled the results with Mr. Sanjeev, Assistant Professor, Fine Arts Dept. of the college. Approximately 60 students and faculty members were present through the event.

2nd October, 2021: E-talk on the theme 'Say no to Violence'

An E-talk was held on the occasion of Mahatma Gandhi Jayanti on the theme 'Say no to Violence' by Dr. Sheojee Singh, Associate Professor, Government College of Education, Sector 20, Chandigarh. The event started with a welcome address by Dr. Rajni Thakur for Principal, Dr. A.K. Srivastava and Speaker of the day Dr. Sheojee Singh to share his valuable thoughts on the simplified life and teachings of Mahatma Gandhi. Dr. Sheojee Singh spoke on the life of Mahatma Gandhi-The Miracle of Our Time. He also informed that it is also the Birth anniversary of Lal Bahadur Shastri the second Prime Minister of India. Further talking about the importance and usefulness of Twin Principles of Truth and Non-Violence in the present era. He shared the Essence of Journey from Mohan to Mahatma. He also quoted Albert Einstein's thought about Gandhi ji that:

"Generations to come will scarcely believe that such a person (like Gandhi) ever walked on this earth in flesh and blood".

Dr. Singh also discussed about the three perspectives of non-violence that is No to Violence in Mind, No to Violence in Words, No to Violence in Deeds. Some Life Lesson he emphasized on are: An Eye for an eye makes the whole world blind, Journey from Unconscious and situation-dependent living to Conscious Living, From Material to Supramaterial Existence. At the end, a question answer session was held were the faculty and students asked and discussed their queries and understanding of life principles of Mahatama Gandhi Ji in the present perspective.

The program was concluded with a vote of thanks extended by Dr. Dipanshu Sharma towards the speaker of the day and the faculty members, participant students and the worthy Principal for all the cooperation and support to make the event a success.
