Private tutoring goes unaccounted.
- The system demands multilevel sanctions and approvals to seek and execute any project.

They also imparted training on IELTS, did event management along with pursuing education. One of our faculty members contributed as volunteer in containment zone. Another one mentored and distributed masks through NSS Volunteers.
- Community Engagement was optimized during the recent years. MGNCRE, Government of India is now a work partner in many allied domains to promote masses from rural and weaker sections, on sustainability and promoting NEP 2020. Opportunities still exist to strengthen community engagement through additional awareness programs, partnerships with local communities, and expanding the reach of extension activities.

1. Multidisciplinary/interdisciplinary:	Education is a broad umbrella to each area of study and it threads well the strengths and peculiarities of various areas and disciplines offered in the college from the pedagogical point of view. Our College is affiliated to Panjab University and follows the curriculum prescribed by the university which is multidisciplinary in nature and prescribes the subjects like Educational Philosophy, Educational Psychology, Educational Technology, Pedagogical subjects of various disciplines etc. The time table, co-curricular activities, field trips, invited lectures, faculty trainings and offering services as resource persons to academic world ensure intertwining the need-based information and knowledge exchange is

	done optimizing the relevant connections of the ecosystem. The faculty have their training in diverse specializations. The students come from science, humanities and social sciences, creative arts, languages and music, engineering and information technology, and so on. They study and exchange and thus create activities that combine the flavours of all of these. A value education session talks about the important days / themes in that week at the national and international levels. NSS Camp invites psychologists, police personnel, environmentalists, management and entrepreneurship trainers, specialists from the various portfolios of Government of India (e.g., MGNCRE), in order to raise the functional readiness of the pupil teachers. Researches being supervised by our faculty for masters and PhD fellows reflect on socially relevant interdisciplinary topics for their research. The wide reading and reporting constantly encourages the multi-/inter-disciplinary approach which allows a broader growth.
2. Academic bank of credits (ABC):	The College is affiliated to Panjab University which is in the process of developing ABC for all the affiliated colleges. The readiness of college for implementing the Academic Bank of Credits depends upon the guidelines of the affiliated university. For this purpose, a centralized database along with the database of the colleges is to be established to digitally store the academic credits earned by the student from various courses so that the credit earned by the student in the previous classes could be forwarded when the student enters the program again. For monitoring ABC, a proper technical support system is to be created. It is difficult the college to go beyond University norms for an affiliated College. The degrees of B.ED. and M.ED. are spread over 4 semesters. the PGD Guidance and Counselling is spread over two semesters. To explain the process, the B.Ed. be taken in reference - for each degree/ diploma, the respective in-charges follow the same pattern. The Skill -in- teaching In-charge and the admission committee have the record of each student as a pupil teacher from the pedagogy point of view as well as the tutorial grouping. The step wise growth over the first three semesters is short term internships in rural &amp; urban setting, orientation and reporting. One Semester long internship follows. Though the entire curriculum of the university is being followed in letter and spirit, the college is dependent on the university for ABS.

3. Skill development:	Skills development is a constant pursuit in the college for the readiness of the pupil teachers for personal and professional growth to arrive in the world of work and sustain themselves as healthy and happy individuals. The curriculum is so designed that the PT learns the methodical approach to the delivery of information. During the First Semester students study a paper titled Teaching through Drama and Music and third semester students have a mandatory component like Simple Expressional Competencies, in second semester pupil teachers opt for various crafts like Interior Decoration, Gardening, Clay Modelling, Computer Craft etc. The skill of pedagogical mind set is focused in the two teaching subjects while they apply the theory of education, its philosophy, measure, assess, evaluate and the minute skills of feedback and incorporating changes. The two internships in first year in the urban and rural schools expose them to challenges and strengths which becomes the skill set to apply in the next semester internship. Lesson planning is a fine set of skills to do justice to the teaching learning process. The skill in teaching committee draws feedback and discussions. The skill development committee looks after the behavioural and crafts in daily life and during the session a 7 day workshop on Capacity Building was held. A successful intensive course by inviting interdisciplinary mentors was planned by the host creative team. Value education period, society weekly period, detailed NSS programs of national programs and personality development all together build the pupil teachers to contribute much to the present and future.
4. Appropriate integration of Indian Knowledge system (teaching in Indian Language, culture, using online course):	The learners in the college are from Hindi, Punjabi, English mediums of learning and writing. The faculty involved is ensured to have teaching skills in the three languages and efficient in at least two. The classroom instructions been flexible, English and Hindi/ Punjabi are combined. College in collaboration with Government College of Yoga Education and Health, Sector 23, Chandigarh and Lokayurved Wellness Concept organized a Faculty Development Program under the aegis of IQAC and RUSA on “Integrated Yog and Ayurveda Wellness Awareness Program for Teacher Educators” and One Day

	International Workshop in collaboration with Vasudeva Kriya Yoga under the aegis of IQAC with the theme 'Art of Man making through Vasudeva Kriya Yoga was also held. Hindi Diwas is celebrated by involving eminent Hindi speakers. Millet Aahar Kranti events are also held throughout the session. Competitions observing major days and festivals are done in all the three languages. Youth festival that involves Indian Heritage has participation from the college in music- singing and dance competitions, home science based activities, and these become milestones to achieve as the students have conscious skill training in folk of India. Azadi KA Amrut Mahotsava observed by the NSS Wing of the college involved each student as NSS Volunteer to participate in the record number of events. Indian Heritage/ sagas of Independence, special week on Independence Day, Swachta, No Plastic Drive, VADA Club, MGNCRE activities to connect to the love for our country, India.
5. Focus on Outcome based education (OBE):	Imparting education is always objective based. It pertains to outcomes be seen in the domain knowledge, its application as well as the behavioural changes in the learners, and eventually in the career readiness and initiatives of the learner. At our college, which is the seat of education and experts in transference of knowledge, the delivery of curriculum and its assessment over the semester(formative) as well as at the conclusion (summative) stages follows a time to time reviewed and applied system which reflects the learning processes in the form of feedback given to the student on their internships, lesson plans, their reports in the field work, their feedback on the faculty teaching, faculty feedback on students and also from the other stakeholders. All of these allow quick changes incorporated to improve the learning outcomes at all stages and aspects. At micro level, the tutor in-charge as well as the pedagogy in-charge, and the school mentor, as well as the subject mentor are together monitoring the plans, execution, improvements and documenting of the lessons. Co curricular activities, skill in teaching competitions at the in house to zonal levels, final Skill in teaching lessons at the end of the semester are processes to improve and be innovative teachers to bring transference of knowledge as future teachers to a superior level.

6. Distance education/online education:	The college has a dedicated cell that supports the B.Ed. program of the University School of Open Learning, Panjab University. One of our faculty members coordinates with USOL and thus our college facilitates Personal Contact Program and their examinations also from time to time. Personal Contact Programme Classes are taken by our faculty during the afternoon and evening hours after their college duties. They also evaluate their assignments and undertake their examinations in collaboration with USOL. Beneficiaries include in-service teachers from the region far away places who use the services and infrastructure of the college. The teachers enhanced their skills on the self-learnt skills as attendees of webinars, FDPs and such programs. Some faculty trained others too. Simulated teaching was incorporated wherever there was a need to manage the gaps of school students not available due to their examinations. The role of non-teaching staff for the same has been commendable and the enhancement of machinery and IT for the same was upgraded and optimized to the best. It has been a learning process at all stages for the entire college and students too.

Students observe the evaluation procedures used in the schools, Types of evaluation, Maintenance of examination records, Library resources, Types of grants and Scholarships received by school etc. Pupil teachers are given exposure in peer observation and Peer Observation Performa for School Internship Programme is also discussed with the students. A demonstration lesson program is organized, during which faculty members specializing in pedagogy showcase various teaching skills to impart knowledge and foster the necessary skills and competencies among student teachers. Student teachers also enhance their teaching skills and social competencies by engaging students in various activities organized by the college. These activities include visits to the library and the Regional Institute of English (RIE), trips to the employment exchange, participation in zonal and interzonal youth festivals, Teacher's Day celebrations, National Service Scheme camps, blood donation drives, visit to innovative centers of pedagogy and learning, including educational resource centers such as the T.S. - Every year, the college organizes a Pre-Internship Program for first and second semester B.Ed. students, aimed at enabling them to observe real classroom situations in urban and rural schools and immerse themselves in the entire school environment. During this program, student teachers are provided with the opportunity to observe the teaching-learning process firsthand in authentic classroom settings. They can witness the use of multimedia, student engagement, and classroom management techniques in action. The Skill in Teaching Committee of the college conducts orientations for students through various programs aligned with the curriculum, facilitating successful integration of pupil teachers into schools during the Pre-internship/Internship program and beyond. These initiatives effectively familiarize students with the diversities within the Indian school system and provide them with an international and comparative perspective. An international webinar titled "A Reflection on Migration, Cultural Understandings, and Education" was conducted on May 30, 2023. Professor Dalon P. ### 1.3.2

Institution familiarizes students with the diversities in school system in India as well as in an international and comparative perspective.

Response:

The institution ensures pupil teachers receive comprehensive exposure to the diverse landscape of the school education system both nationally and internationally.

Institution has adopted automation of library using Integrated Library Management System (ILMS) or any other software

Response:

The Library at Government College of Education, Sector 20-D, Chandigarh has undergone a comprehensive transformation, embracing automation to enhance services and streamline operations for the college community. The library has acquired LSEase library management system/Libsys 10, a user-friendly interface.

Integrated Library Management System (ILMS): Key to this transformation is the adoption of an Integrated Library Management System (ILMS), facilitated by Libsys 10, LSEase library management system, a web-centric solution designed to meet international standards and open technology principles.

LSEase library management system / LIBSYS 10: LSEase library management system has a user-friendly interface, which is built on international standards and open technology. It covers functions in well-built modules, i.e., Acquisition, Cataloguing, Circulation, Serials, along with enriched OPAC. A seamless workflow enables library staff with a powerful tool to manage library operations efficiently.

Barcodes and RFID technology: A significant aspect of automation is the computerized issuance and return of books, facilitated by barcodes and RFID technology. Through LIBSYS 10, the library generates essential materials such as barcodes, spine labels, catalogue cards, and SMART library membership cards. This not only expedites transactions but also ensures accuracy and accountability in managing library resources.

Radio-Frequency Identification (RFID): The College library has implemented Radio-Frequency Identification (RFID) solutions in various areas, including data collection, stock verification, and security. RFID technology supports automatic and accurate reading of multiple tags, enabling faster transactions and enhancing the security of library items through RFID security gates.

Library circulation processes, such as member registration, book lending, reservation management, and inter-library loans, are efficiently managed through the ILMS. These tasks, performed both digitally and manually, ensure accuracy and timeliness in serving library patrons. Additionally, the College library maintains a visitor record for students and faculty members, promoting community engagement and accountability.

OPAC services: The library's Online Public Access Catalogue (OPAC) facility allows users to search the library's collection online, both within the library and remotely. This feature empowers users to explore resources by title, author, subject, and more, facilitating independent research and academic success.

Library cataloging, a fundamental aspect of automation, involves creating and maintaining bibliographic and authority records. These records organize various library materials, including books, serials, sound recordings, and e-resources. The cataloging process encompasses descriptive cataloging, subject cataloging, and authority control, ensuring accuracy and consistency in information retrieval. The library emphasizes user engagement by prominently displaying new arrivals of books and journals.

Surveillance: To uphold safety standards, the College library is equipped with closed-circuit television (CCTV) surveillance cameras, ensuring a secure environment for patrons and resources alike. These measures underscore the library's commitment to providing a conducive and safe space for learning and scholarly pursuits.

In conclusion, the GCE Library's automation initiatives, driven by ILMS LIBSYS 10 software, have revolutionized library services and operations. Through advanced technologies and streamlined processes, the library provides a dynamic and inclusive environment for learning, research, and community engagement.

It is clear from the creation of numerous committees charged with overseeing both academic and extracurricular responsibilities.
  - Along with its dedication to administrative effectiveness, the college also places a high priority on student participation in the democratic elections and governance. Students can choose their representatives for roles like president, vice president, secretary, joint secretary, and others in democratic and open elections that are held on campus. This democratic method fosters a sense of leadership and responsibility for students' learning experiences by not only empowering them but also encouraging them to actively engage in the governance of the college.
  - The college's key values include encouraging students to develop leadership, self-control and pursue ethical values. This calls for excellence in conduct and character in addition to academic achievement. This is accomplished by organizing value added periods by students on the weekly basis where every student participates in the organization of value education assembly, personalized guidance by teachers during tutorial period and organization of activities for students and by the students during societies periods etc.

- The admission committee, which is in charge of the Panjab University admission procedure, is one such committee. Its main objective is to make sure that admissions are handled fairly and in accordance with the criteria established by Panjab University. The college's dedication to a fair and equitable admissions process is reflected in this commitment to openness and respect to accepted norms.
- The Skill in Teaching committee, another important committee, is crucial in overseeing practice teaching during the internship programme. This committee makes sure that aspiring teachers who are divided in Tutorial groups fairly and randomly receive real-world experience and polish their instructional techniques so they are ready to succeed in the classroom.
- Another crucial element of the college's management system is the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC). The IQAC plays a key role in planning events aimed at student teachers' professional development by organizing activities by students and faculty. The faculty tries to apply the most effective teaching strategies and instructional techniques and maintains a very positive bond with the students.
- In addition to these, the college has numerous other effective committees, each focused on a different area of college development and advancement. These include the NSS Unit, the cultural committee, examination committee, advisory committees and the academic enrichment committee etc. In order to create and carry out plans within the governance framework, these committees collaborate with one another, promoting a culture of shared accountability and decision-making.

Decentralization and participatory management have been embraced by the Government College of Education as important foundations of its governance system. The institution is dedicated to improving its overall efficacy and efficiency by creating committees to manage different administrative facets, encouraging openness, and giving students more authority through democratic methods. These programmes highlight the institution's commitment to deliver high-quality instruction and promoting a culture of continuous development.

6.1.3

The institution maintains transparency in its financial, academic, administrative and other functions

Response:

To guarantee the effective and efficient use of financial resources, Chandigarh Administration has put in place a strong institutional system. In all financial matters, this method is intended to encourage responsibility, transparency, and compliance on the part of college.

1. The college first goes through a thorough and thoughtful procedure to determine its annual financial needs. The decision-making body thoroughly discusses all material financial issues pertaining to the college's budget requirements. Following the completion of these, budget proposal is then sent to the Administration for approval at the start of each financial year. This makes sure that the budget is allocated in accordance with the requirements of the college.
2. The college adopts an approach to purchasing as per the government rules. The task of purchasing necessary products and services is assigned to purchase committees, who do so through E-tendering system and the Gem portal. These procedures ensure that purchases are conducted clearly and effectively by abiding by all laws and regulations. Compliance and accountability are further guaranteed by the respective verification committees.
3. The college takes great care to maintain records that are accurate and current. Data from the college, including details about the teaching and non-teaching staff, accounts, and academic progress, is regularly posted onto the AISHE portal. This practice supports data-driven decision-making and accountability by assisting in monitoring and reporting on many elements of the college's activities.
4. The college prioritizes openness and accessibility in its academic policies. Regulations, syllabi, and curriculum are easily accessible on the college website and in the online prospectus. This makes it simple for students and other stakeholders to access crucial academic material. To further ensure that all related individuals are informed, important information such as admission specifics, exam dates, circulars, seminar announcements, timetables, workshops, and training programmes are clearly posted on both the college website and notice board.
6. The college is dedicated to making sure that its evaluation procedures are impartial. Students can see their performance information by viewing internal assessments that are publicly placed on the college's website and notice board. Additionally, feedback from students is actively sought after and conveyed to the appropriate teachers, promoting a culture of accountability and ongoing growth.
7. The college's activities are based on administrative transparency. During staff meetings, major decisions are made collectively by decision-making bodies and personnel, ensuring that feedback from various stakeholders are considered. Each faculty member's annual performance review is available on the ehms site, where faculty members can review it and, if necessary, accept it or object. This procedure improves accountability for faculty development and transparency in performance evaluation.
8. The college also emphasizes the importance of carrying out administrative choices. All directives given by the administration are communicated to the appropriate individuals, and their execution is required. By ensuring that rules are properly implemented improves the institution's overall efficiency and effectiveness.

Therefore the Government College of Education has established a thorough institutional framework to guarantee the prudent and effective use of financial resources and to uphold accountability and openness throughout all facets of its activities. These procedures highlight the college's dedication to offering updated knowledge and responsible leadership.

6.3.5

The institution has a performance appraisal system for teaching and non-teaching staff

Response:

The Government College of Education in Chandigarh has a Performance Appraisal System that is efficient and organized and includes both teaching and non-teaching employees. This thorough review procedure is crucial to improving the institution's performance and promoting the employees' professional development. The Electronic Human Resource Management System (eHRMS) interface is used to conduct the appraisal process, which speeds the evaluation process and ensures transparency.

Every year, the Chandigarh Administration initiates the eHRMS portal starting the Performance Appraisal cycle of the current year. Through this portal, staff members have a platform to inform the administration of their year-round contributions and accomplishments, all of which help to advance the institution and their own professional development. It is an essential tool for recognizing outstanding performance, rewarding it, and pinpointing areas that need work.

A fixed deadline is established for all employees to finish their Annual Performance Appraisal Reports (APARs) in order to maintain a controlled timeline. This deadline is crucial for ensuring that the evaluation and feedback process is completed on time. The APARs are made available for review by the Reporting Officer, who is college's Principal, after the deadline has passed. The Reporting Officer plays crucial role in evaluating an employee's performance and offering helpful criticism, as well as providing insights that are important for career advancement.

The APAR is sent to the Director of Higher Education, Chandigarh Administration who serves as the reviewing officer after the Reporting Officer evaluates it. This procedure adds a second layer of review and guarantees a fair and unbiased appraisal of the worker's performance. The reviewing officer contributes a new viewpoint to the evaluation, assisting in upholding the process' integrity.

The Secretary Education, Chandigarh Administration who holds the position of highest authority within the Chandigarh Administration's educational system, is involved in the last step of this complete performance appraisal system. As the accepting authority, this person carefully examines the APAR to make sure it complies with the institution's goals and objectives.

The Annual Performance Appraisal Report is then sent to the concerned employee after being approved by the Secretary of Education. The employee is given the chance to accept the presented appraisal at this point or, if unsatisfied, to represent his case. This crucial step in the procedure enables staff members to express their concerns, ensuring that the evaluation process is still fair and open.

The APAR is susceptible to further scrutiny by higher authorities if an employee chooses to advocate his case if he is unhappy with the evaluation grade. This system guards against potential biases or errors and demonstrates the dedication of the Chandigarh Administration and the Government College of Education to justice and accountability.

So it should be noted that the Government College of Education in Chandigarh has put in place a thorough and successful Performance Appraisal System that applies to both teaching and non-teaching employees. Through the eHRMS interface, this system provides accountability, openness, and fairness in the evaluation of employee performance. The institution ensures a thorough and rigorous assessment procedure that fosters excellence and professional progress by involving numerous levels of evaluation, from the Reporting Officer to the Accepting authority. The system's focus on employee representation further highlights its dedication to offering a fair and just appraisal process.

Response:

Our college has proactively established "Internal Quality Assurance Cell" (IQAC) in accordance with the standards established by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) with the primary objective of realizing the multifaceted goals of quality enhancement and sustenance within the institution. In order to establish a culture of quality that permeates in every aspect of the institution, including the academic sphere, operational procedures, and research endeavors among others, the IQAC works as a dynamic and inclusive mechanism. The IQAC has narrowed its focus in recent years to creating an all-encompassing system that addresses and corrects shortcomings while also raising the bar for academics, research, extension programmes, student support services, and creating beneficial partnerships through Memorandums of Understanding (MoUs) with reputed institutions.

In order to guide the institution towards greater academic excellence and operational efficiency, the IQAC plays a crucial role. It acts as a facilitator, utilizing strategic planning strategy to promote quality improvements. The IQAC continually pushes the institution towards improved quality and performance due to its systematic methodology, which makes sure it stays at the fore of its endeavors.

Coordination of the NAAC assessment and accreditation process is a significant duty carried out by the IQAC. This procedure is crucial in assessing how well the institution adheres to strict standards across a range of factors, including governance, infrastructure, and methods for teaching and learning. The IQAC of the college plays significant role in ensuring that the institution complies with all requirements of NAAC. It makes sure the institution is ready to highlight its advantages and advancements across a range of areas.

By proactively planning a wide range of professional development programmes for both staff and students, the IQAC has played a crucial part in improving the learning and working environments of the institution. These programmes, which include Faculty Development Programmes (FDPs), workshops, seminars, and webinars, are carefully created with the goal of equipping faculty and students with the most recent information and expertise in their specialized disciplines. Additionally, the IQAC has helped to improve the infrastructure of the college to ensure the well-being of students, fostering an environment that is suitable to learning and development. Value-added courses have been established to extend students' horizons and provide them new skills and abilities. In order to continuously fine-tune and enhance the educational and operational processes, the IQAC has also built a strong feedback mechanism and is actively soliciting advice and views from all stakeholders, including students, teachers, and administrators. Additionally, the IQAC is essential in ensuring that academic and extracurricular programmes are seamlessly coordinated, producing a balanced and comprehensive educational experience that extends beyond the textbooks and walls of classrooms. Collectively, these programmes demonstrate the IQAC's dedication to creating an environment that fosters the intellectual and personal development of all participants in education.

An important accomplishment was the IQAC's excellent coordination of the NAAC Team's visit during last cycle which resulted in the college receiving a "A" Grade from NAAC accreditation. This accomplishment demonstrates the institution's unwavering dedication to offering top-notch instruction and promoting a supportive atmosphere for learning and research. It serves as acknowledgment of the institution's staff, and administration's joint efforts to sustain the highest standards of instruction and institutional governance.

6.5.2*The institution reviews its teaching-learning process periodically through IQAC or any other mechanism*Response:

For programmes like B.Ed., M.Ed., and PGDGC, the teaching-learning process is planned meticulously to adhere to the recommended curriculum and finally complete the Programme Learning Outcomes (PLOs) and Course Learning Outcomes (CLOs) as prescribed by the university. The Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) recommended the creation of the Curriculum Enrichment Committee and the active participation of this committee serves as an example of the institution's dedication to offering high-quality education and continuously improving the teaching-learning process. Together, these groups examine, update, and adjust teaching-learning procedures on a regular basis to make sure they continue to meet changing educational demands.

In particular, the Curriculum Committee plays a key role in streamlining and improving the teaching-learning process to accommodate evolving viewpoints of students and teachers in policy frameworks. For the curriculum to remain successful and relevant, adaptation is crucial. As a result, curriculum transaction techniques are always being improved. The staff meeting is an important forum because it offers a venue for thoughtful discussion and decision-making. All faculty members provide their valuable feedback during the staff meetings held throughout the session. The administrative decisions are made and implemented thereof with active involvement of faculty members. This varied teaching approach seeks to meet the various learning requirements of our students while promoting a more stimulating and productive learning environment.

Regular feedback is gathered to make sure that the teaching-learning process remains relevant to the needs and expectations of students. This student feedback system is a useful tool for assessing the caliber and efficacy of the teaching-learning process from the students' point of view. The institution's commitment to ongoing improvement may be seen in how this feedback is used to plan for and make improvements in the following academic sessions as per discussions held in staff meeting and curriculum enrichment committee meetings. Additionally, the college values the opinions of all stakeholders, not only students. Parents, school administrators, alumni, and teachers are all actively encouraged to provide feedback. This multifaceted strategy for gathering feedback offers a comprehensive understanding of the educational processes and their results. Once this input has been gathered, it is carefully examined, and its insights are presented during a staff meeting where the results are thoroughly debated. The comments are carefully examined, and faculty members work together to choose the best next steps. Through this cooperative effort, it is ensured that the faculty suggestions are converted into real advancements in the teaching-learning process, raising the institution's overall level of educational quality.

The college website is a reflection of transparent college functioning. The activities done in response to the academic calendar are documented in the reports uploaded regularly on the website. The college website makes the Action Taken Report easily accessible to everyone, encouraging accountability and openness in the institution's ongoing attempts to improve the teaching-learning process. Therefore our institution's teaching-learning process is distinguished by a dynamic and flexible approach.

The involvement of the IQAC, the Curriculum Committee, and the active gathering and evaluation of input from several stakeholders all support the institution's continued dedication to raising educational standards. The teaching-learning process is kept flexible and in line with the changing demands of the educational landscape, which ultimately benefits both students and the larger educational community.
