The session started with motivational lecture by Dr. Kshitija Mittal Assistant Professor from Government Medical College of Hospital, Sector 32 where she highlighted the importance of blood donation. She discussed about the need of blood to save human life, components of blood that can be used, the situations and diseases where blood transfusion is required. She continued her discussion with the importance of voluntary blood donation and why blood given voluntarily is the best type of blood donation that a person can do. She also emphasised on the fact that blood is replenishable and there is no major effect on donator health whatsoever. After this, she gave a detailed description about the process of blood donation where she described the whole process of selecting those donors that are healthy and able to give blood which comes with certain conditions(like having haemoglobin more than 12.5, not being on any medication, not being on periods for females, etc.). After this selection, the donor is asked to lie down and the blood is taken under careful observation of the doctors with clear labelling and careful handling of the collected sample. After the blood has been taken, the donor is monitored by the onsite doctors for a little while so that they can make sure that the donor is in perfect health. Dr. Ravneet Kaur motivated everyone present in the hall to donate blood and save lives, and the result was that the students of the college enthusiastically participated in the blood donation camp. All volunteers were awarded with a
