

Govt. College of Education, Sector-20 D, Chandigarh

Report of Orientation Programme

Session 2026-27 (19th to 21st August, 2026)

As per previous practice of the college, the orientation programme for the newly admitted students of B. Ed.1st Semester and PGDGC 1st Semester was organised in the Room No. 3 of the college on 19th, 20th and 21st August, 2026. The orientation programme initiated with inaugurated of academic session by the esteemed guest Swami Bhitiharanada, Secretary Ramakrishna Mission Ashram, Sector-15, Chandigarh. The programme initiated by lighting of the lamp by the chief guest. The invocation of the Goddess Sarasvati was carried out by the music students of the college accompanied by the music faculty. All the students, faculty members and support staff enthusiastically participated in the orientation programme.

Speaking on this occasion Chief Guest congratulated the students for choosing the noble profession of teaching and tells the students that they are lucky to be admitted in this prestigious institute of teacher education in Northern India. Swami Bhitiharanada also motivated the students to harness their skills and form the right attitude towards the development of human resources to change the life of their students. The chief guest lauded the students for choosing teaching career and wished them to imbibe the basic characteristics of positive attitude, effective communication and channelizing the pupils in constructive ways and finding motivation. The Chief Guest was introduced and welcomed by Dr. Sapna Nanda Principal by presenting a bouquet of flowers. After formal inauguration of the session, Dr. Sapna Nanda, Principal of the College welcomed the students and congratulated them for getting admission in the college and choosing the noble profession of teaching.

Dr. Sapna Nanda introduced the faculties to the students and informed that all the staff members are highly qualified and possess Ph. D. degree in the relevant disciplines. All the admitted students were made aware of the different wings and programmes of the college by the respective teacher in-charges. Dr. Ajay Kumar Srivastava, Dean of the college took the students to the virtual tour of the college through a video and explained different features of the college. He explained each and every aspect of the college infrastructure and facilities available for the students.

Dr. Anurag Sankhian explained about the scheme of studies including syllabus, curricular components and internal and external evaluation. Dr Sanjeev Kumar introduced the students to the college time table which is to be followed by all the classes and schedule of events mentioned in the time table as per the scheme of studies of respective courses. He also explained about the Examination requirements and Alumni association of the college. Dr. Sanjeev Kumar also highlighted the different types of scholarships available to the students and also explained the procedure to avail this facility. Dr. Suman Khokhar made the students aware of the rules and regulations of Panjab University related to the lecture shortage and the possible actions that can be taken in case of shortfall of the lectures. She also explained the mandatory requirement of biometric attendance of all the students by the NCTE and hence all the students have to invariably mark their attendance on the biometric attendance machines installed in the college. Ms. Khushi Rawat, Librarian explained the rules of library regarding issue/ return of the books to the students in details. Dr. Meena made the students aware about the internship programmes conducted by the college. She explained the schedule and activities planned in the pre-internship, internship and post-internship programme of the B.Ed. and M.Ed. courses. She also informed the students about the final skill in teaching examinations and requirement of the internship programmes. Dr. Sheojee Singh explained about the functioning and role of UHV cell of the college. Dr. Balwinder Kaur, Programme officer NSS, motivated the students to participate in the activities planned by the NSS unit of the college and asked the students to contribute towards the society through this flagship programme of Govt. of India. She also explained the functioning of Skill development cell of the college and stressed upon the following of the dress code of the college. She beautifully highlighted the importance of dress/ uniform in an institution and thus made the students aware of the dress code of the college. Dr. Vandana Aggarwal informed the students about different types of cultural activities carried out by the college during the session. She emphasised that co-curricular activities are part and parcel of the curriculum of PGDGC and B.Ed., the main focus of these activities is the harmonious training and skill development of the students. The Co-curricular activity in charge asked the students to participate in the Talent Hunt Programme organised for the benefits of the students. She motivated the students to take part with full enthusiasm and explore your potential.

The second day of the programme begins with the welcoming of the Guests by the Dr. Vandana Aggarwal. Sisters from Brahkumari's Chandigarh centre address the students and vows to include human values in their day to day working. Dr. Ajay Kumar Srivastava, Dean of the college explained in details the objectives of the Grievance Redressal cell, Curriculum planning and enrichment and highlighted the working of the Grievance Redressal cell. Dr. Savita Arya explained the students about the Anti-Ragging Cell of the college and highlighted the provisions of UGC Anti-Ragging guidelines and Supreme Court directions. She also made the students aware of the Equal Opportunity Cell of the college. She explained the establishment of Equal Opportunity Cell in the college and also explained the function of the cell for the welfare of the students and highlighted the various measures taken by the college to maintain equality and equity among all the students. The College is fully committed to provide equal opportunities to the students without any prejudice. Dr. Balwinder Kaur, In-charge Internal Complaint Committee explained the functioning of Internal Complaint Committee and also made the students aware of the provisions of the anti-sexual harassment act at workplace and in institution. She also highlighted the steps taken by the institution in preventing sexual harassment and mechanism to lodge complaints. Dr. Vijay Phogat informed the students that they will be asked to give constructive feedback to their teachers through feedback Performa at the end of each semester. He also explained the importance of the feedback process followed by the college to improve teaching learning. Dr. Anjali Puri informed the students about the facilities available in the guidance and counselling unit of the college. She explained the procedure to consult and seek guidance and carry out research in the lab. She also motivated the students to take up self study and value added courses organised by college as well as available online free of cost. Dr. Punam Bansal explain the students about the functioning of the Alumni Association of the college and the role of Alumni in the development of the college curriculum. Dr. Meena explained about the functions and duties of the legal literacy cell and Cyber Swachhata Mission of the Chandigarh Police. She also informed the students about the various legal provisions of the constitution to safeguard the rights of the individuals. She also highlighted the duties and rights guaranteed in our constitution and appeal all the students to be aware about their legal rights. She also highlighted the need of creating cyber security for the students and teachers and asked the student to volunteer for creating cyber safe environment in the city beautiful. Dr Ravinder Kumar listed the activities to be conducted by the Eco-Club of the college from time to time. Dr. Nisha Singh informed the students that the college organises the extension lectures of the renowned academicians throughout the session. She requested all the students not to miss the lectures as these are lifelong experiences shared by the resource persons. Dr. Nisha also informed that the functions and duties of electoral literacy club (ELC) of the college and asked the students to be informed about their voting rights. Dr. Ravneet Kaur explained about the activities planned by the Placement Cell of the College and asked the students to register online on the college placement portal to seek placement through college. She also highlighted the role of Placement cell in assisting the pass out to seek employment.

Dr. Neelam Paul explained the role of sports in the overall development of the personality. She highlighted that throughout the year sports related competitions are carried out in the college. She asked every student to take part in one or more sports discipline. She informed that every year our college won many prizes in the inter-college as well as Panjab University sports competitions. She also informed the students about the Educational Tours being organised by the college every year and asked students to utilise the opportunity to learn the life lessons through educational travels. Dr. Vandana Aggarwal and Dr. Ravinder Kumar carried out the talent hunt programme and conducted various competitions and expose the students to the programme conducting and presentation on the stage by the students themselves. At the end of the programme student volunteers proposed vote of thanks to all the students and faculty for making the programme a success.

The third day of the orientation programme begins with the welcoming of the students by the Dr. Vandana Aggarwal and Dr. Ravinder Kumar. The student volunteers steered the programme through conducting of various talent hunt items for the students. The students' also whole heartedly participated in the programme and displayed their talent. The talent programme concluded with honouring the best performing students by the Principal and Staff. The three days Programme concluded with the vote of thanks to the Principal, Staff and Students by the cultural committee head, Dr. Vandana Aggarwal and team of cultural activities students.

Glimpse of the events during Orientation is depicted in the Photos below:

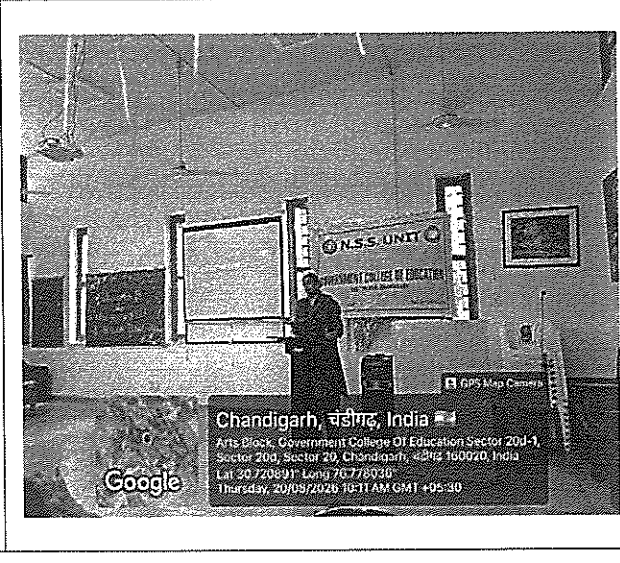

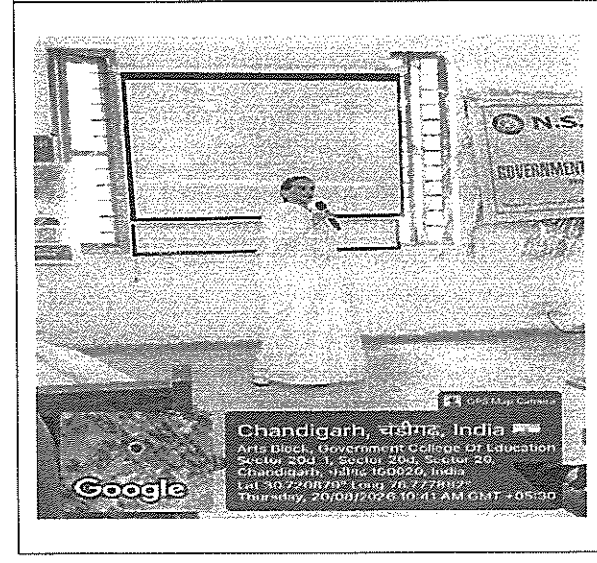

Amey

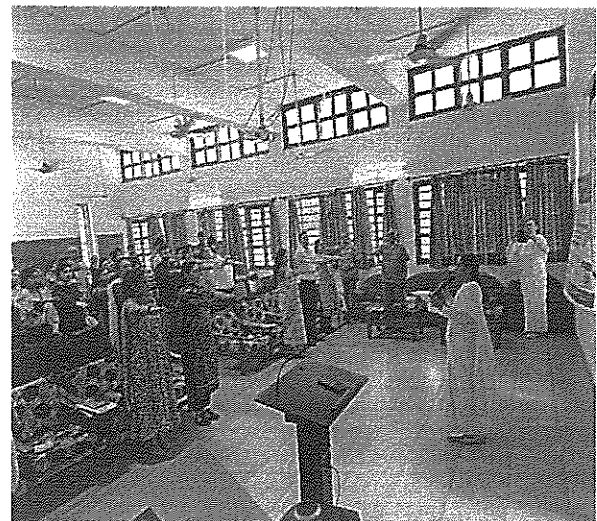

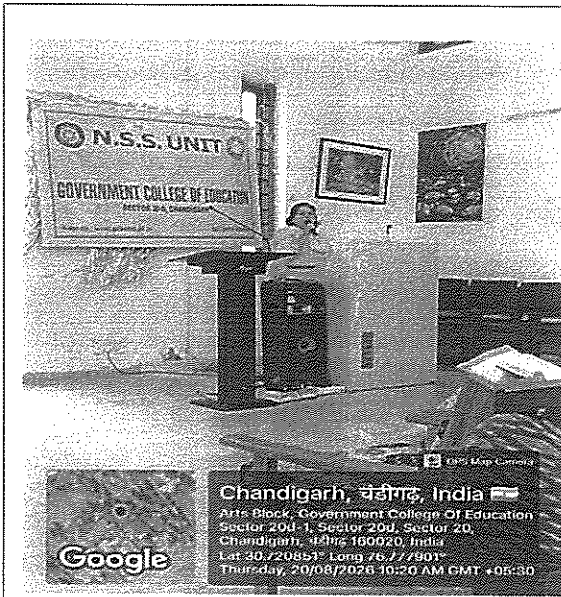

Date: 20.08.2026

Thursday

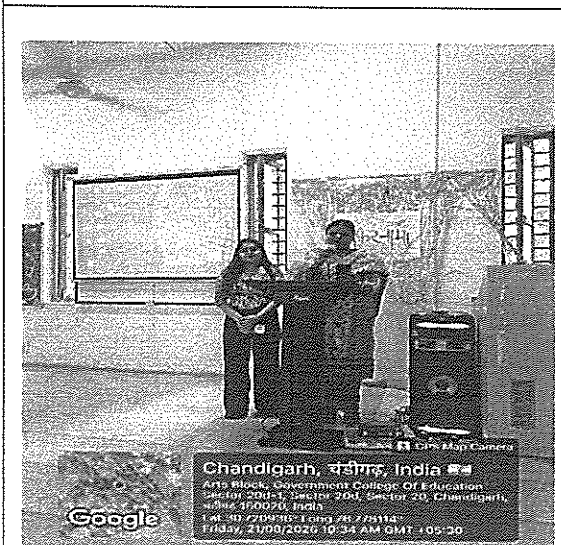

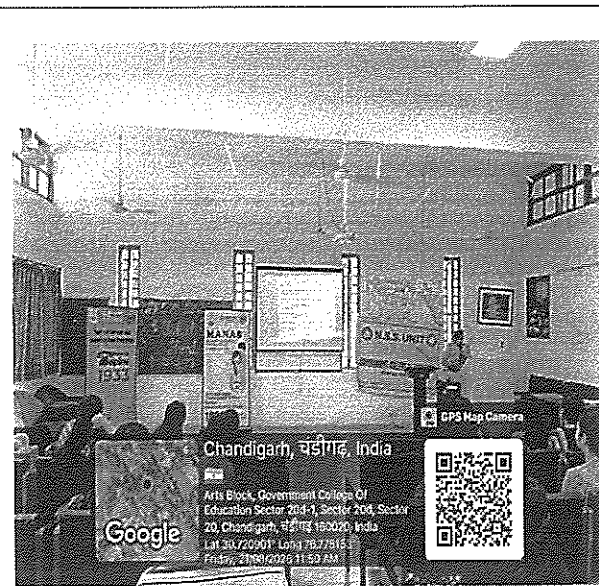

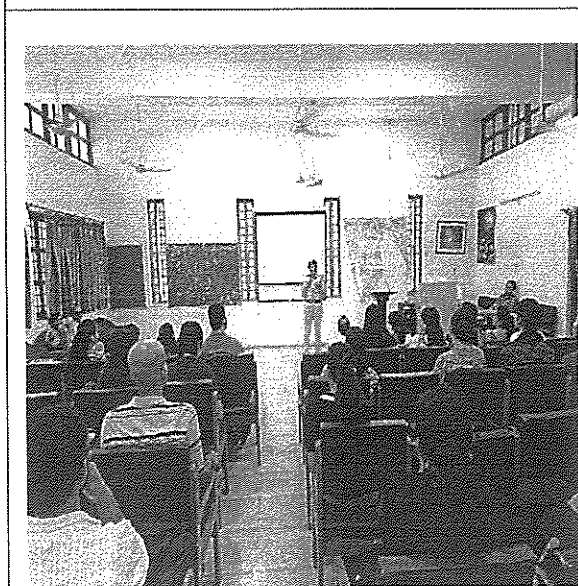

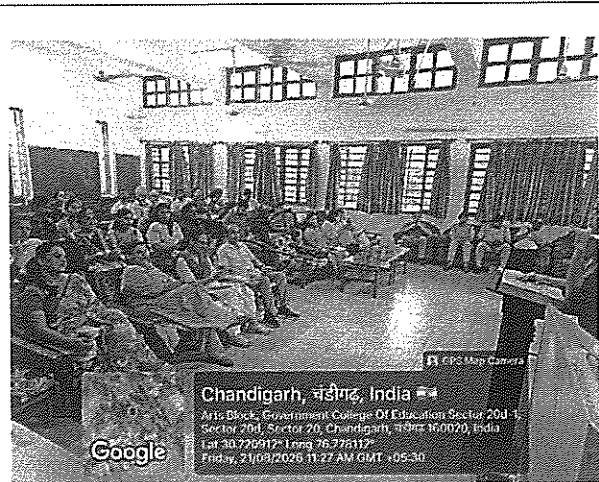

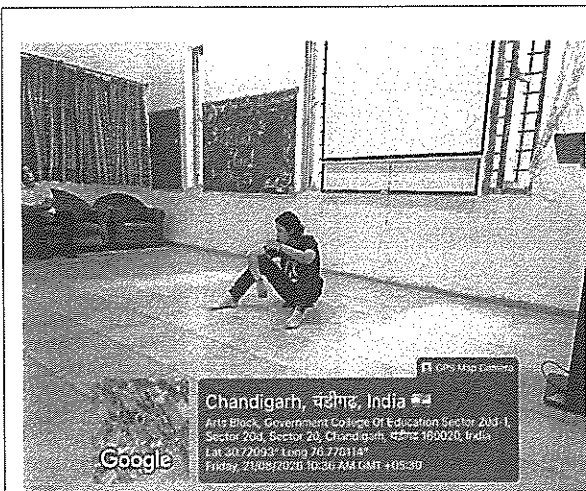

Chmy

Date: 21.08.2026

Friday

Staff Secretary Litu Ram
26/8/2026

Principal Kavale
26/8/2026

CC:

1. NAAC Committee for information
2. Curriculum Committee for Information
- ✓ 3. Dr. Suman Khokhar for uploading on the College website
4. For Records