

GOVERNMENT COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, SECTOR-20-D, CHANDIGARH

NOTICE

13.09.2024

In order to commemorate India's pioneering achievements in space sciences and technology, and to celebrate India's Space Week in memory of the father of Space Sciences in India, Dr. Vikram A. Sarabhai, a power-point presentation competition is being organized in the college on Wednesday, 18-09-2024 from 10:20 am to 12:00 noon. All the students with Pedagogy of Science, Life Science and Physical Science are required to attend the program. The Executive Committee of Science Club "Navonmesh" is required to co-ordinate the program and motivate the students to participate. The Names of the participating students should reach the President or General Secretary of Science Club "Navonmesh" by 11:00 a.m. on Tuesday, 17-09-2024

The topics/ themes the power point presentations are:

1. India's Achievements in Space Sciences
2. Benefits of Space Exploration
3. Life and Work of Dr. Vikram A Sarabhai / Dr. A P J Abdul Kalam
4. Space Sciences for Communication Revolution
5. Any other topic related to Space Sciences

Rules for presentation:

1. The evaluation criteria will take into consideration the originality of the content, the style of presentation and creativity.
2. Maximum time for presentation is 5 minutes,
3. The slides should contain originality of thought/ ideas and presentation and must not be copied and pasted directly from any online sources.
4. The maximum number of slides for one presentation is 7 to 8.
5. There will be three prizes from among the presentations provided there are sufficient number of entries.

Convener

Dr. Sanjeev Kumar

Principal

Dr. Sapna Nanda