The Legal Literacy Cell (L.L.C.) of Government College of Education, Sector 20D, Chandigarh, celebrated National Legal Services Day on 8th November, 2024, with an insightful legal awareness session aimed at educating students about their rights and responsibilities. The function started with the College Anthem .Dr. (Mrs.) Sapna Nanda, Principal, extended a warm welcome to the key note speaker of the day, Shri. Rajeshwar Singh, Law Officer, State Legal Services Authority, U.T., Chandigarh and highlighted the significance of the day in promoting legal literacy and empowering youth to understand new legal frameworks of the Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), the BhartiyaNagrik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS), and the Bhartiya Sakshaya Adhinyam (BSA) that will impact their lives.

In his keynote address, Mr. Rajeshwar Singh (Resource Person) congratulated Dr. (Mrs.) Sapna Nanda and Dr. Meena, the in-charge of the Legal Literacy Cell, for organizing the program. He emphasized the importance of celebrating National Legal Services Day, which serves as a vital reminder of the need for accessible and equitable justice for all citizens. He highlighted that such events help bridge the gap between legal systems and the common people, empowering individuals with the knowledge and tools needed to uphold their rights. The Resource Person spoke about the importance of being informed about one's rights and the need for a responsible, informed citizenry, which he sees as the foundation of a fair and democratic society. He also highlighted critical aspects of the POCSO Act, encouraging students to be vigilant and proactive in protecting children's rights.

Ms. Shagun Vinayak, the Chief Executive Member of the L.L.C., outlined the various activities and objectives of the cell held during the current session, emphasizing its commitment to fostering legal awareness on campus. Ms. Aanchal (Executive Member, L.L.C.) provided an introduction to the National Legal Services Authority (NALSA), explaining its mission to offer free legal services to the underprivileged. This was followed by an informative presentation on the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences (POCSO) Act by Ms. Nitika (Executive Member, L.L.C.), underscoring the importance of safeguarding children from abuse. Further, Ms. Saloni, (Executive Member, L.L.C.), presented brief introduction on three major legislative reforms introduced in 2023: the Bhartiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), the Bhartiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS), and the Bhartiya Sakshaya Adhinyam (BSA). She highlighted the key features of these reforms, which aim to streamline and modernize India's criminal justice system.
