A Report on Republic Day Programme

Date: 26.01.2025

The programme for celebration of 76th Republic Day begins with the welcome of Chief Guest, Staff and students by Dr. Vandana Aggarwal. As per the tradition of the college, the oldest serving employee in the order, Dr. Nisha Singh, Assistant Professor of the college was the Chief Guest of the day and hoisted the National Flag. The program began with an insightful layout presented by Dr. Vandana Aggarwal, Associate Professor at the college, setting the tone for the day's celebrations. All the faculty members of the college and student representatives garlanded the Chief Guest of the day.

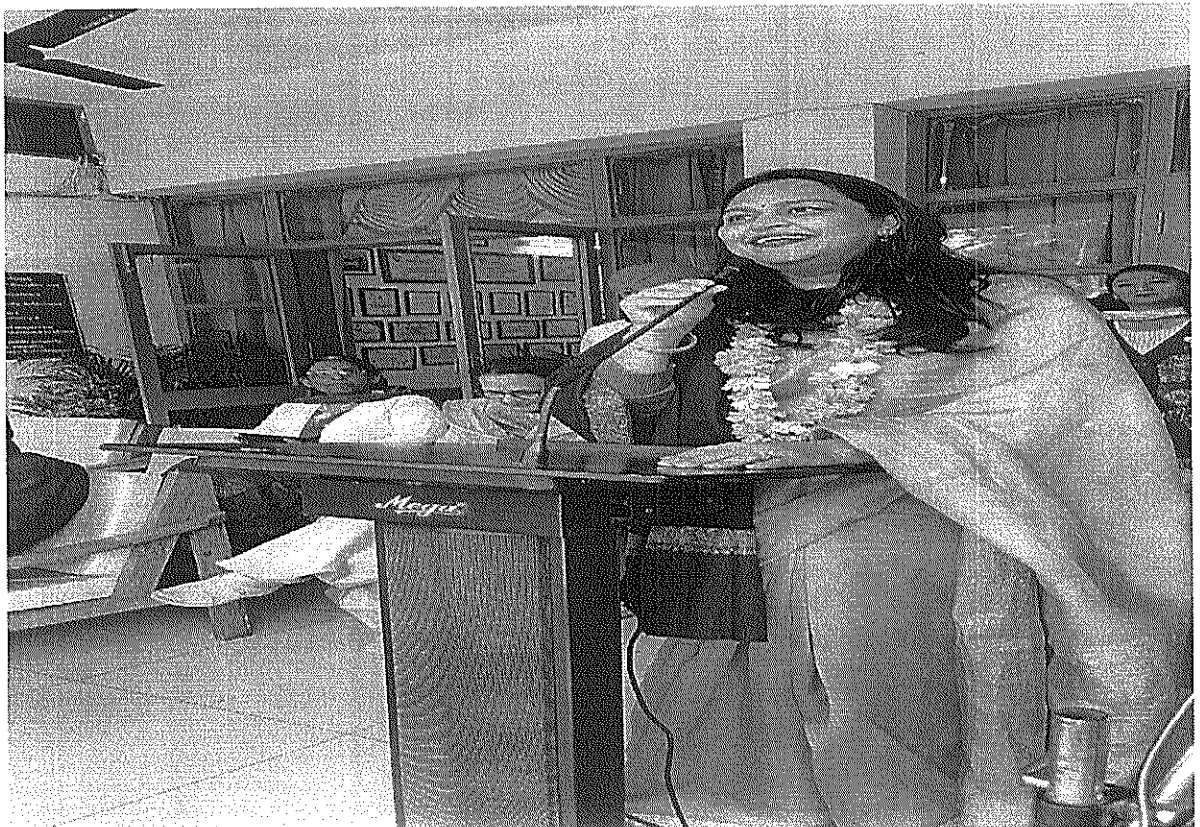

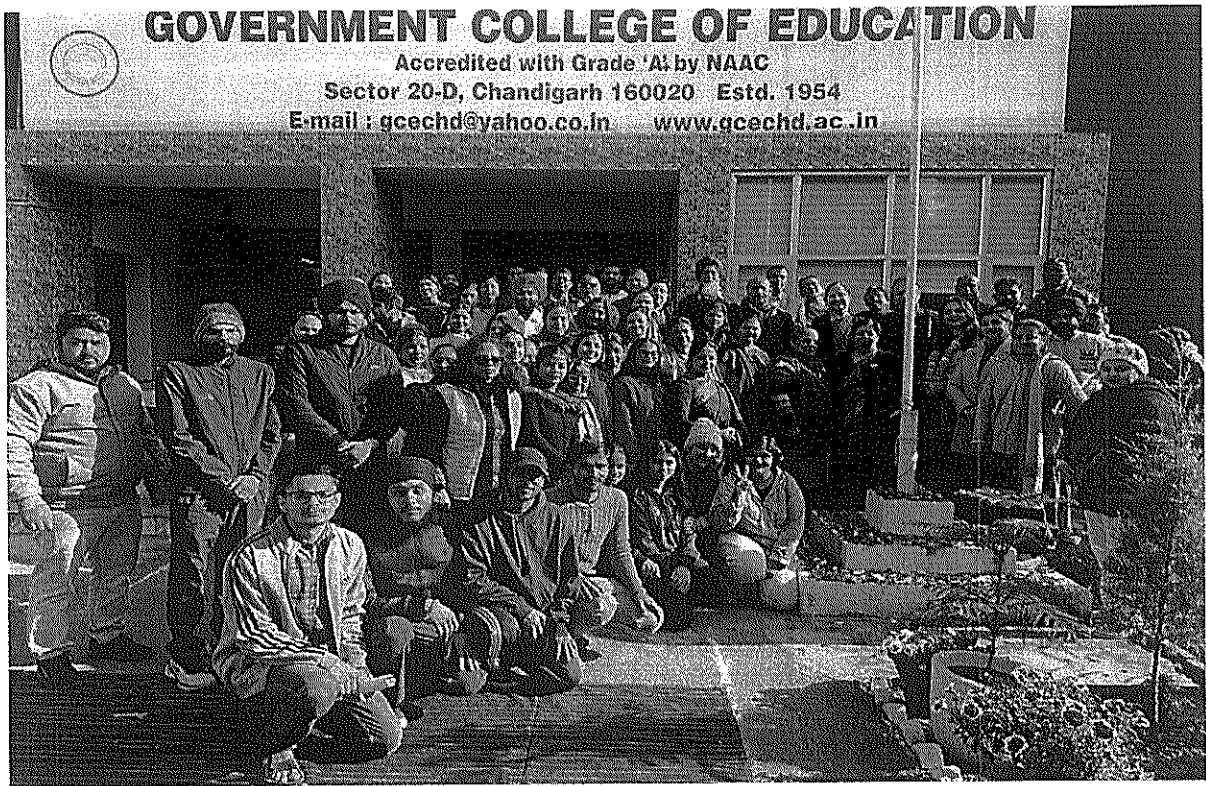

Principal of the college Dr. Harsh Batra in her speech congratulated all present on the occasion and highlighted the significance of the day. She emphasized the unity and collective joy of 76 years of India's republic, highlighting the nation's progress in agriculture, infrastructure, education, and sports. She praised farmers for achieving self-sufficiency, labourers for their contributions to development, and the government for increasing investment in education and skill development. She also acknowledged India's cultural heritage, exemplified by events like the Mahakumbh, and its growing global presence in sports. Dr. Batra urged everyone to uphold the guiding principles of truth and non-violence as envisioned by Mahatma Gandhi and congratulated the college community for achieving an A+ grade.

Following this, Dr. Nisha Singh addressed the gathering with a heartfelt speech, calling it a proud moment for all. She urged everyone to remember their rights and duties as citizens and reaffirmed the commitment to uphold constitutional values through exemplary behaviour and conduct. On the occasion of National Voters Day-2025 celebration, the Electoral Literacy Club Nodal Officer Dr. Nisha Singh was awarded appreciation certificate for outstanding and dedicated contribution in spreading voter awareness and electoral literacy among students/citizens/ electors by Director School Education, AERO-03 Chandigarh.

Students presented patriotic songs and sweets were distributed on this occasion. The function was largely attended by the faculty, office, administrative staff and students of the college. The function concluded with the National Anthem.
