

GOVERNMENT COLLEGE OF EDUCATION SECTOR 20-D, CHANDIGARH

Veer Baal Diwas (26th December 2024)

The NSS Cell of Government College of Education, Sector 20-D, Chandigarh organized an online writing competition on December 26, 2024, to mark the occasion of Veer Baal Diwas. The day commemorates the courage and sacrifice of the four sons of Guru Gobind Singh Ji—Ajit Singh, Jujhar Singh, Zorawar Singh, and Fateh Singh—who stood firm in their faith and values even in the face of death. Veer Baal Diwas is a day to tribute to the bravery and martyrdom of Chaar SahibZaade.

An online writing competition was held on 26-12-2024 in which volunteers participated in essay, story, and poem writing in any three languages—English, Hindi, and Punjabi. The event was organized to make volunteers aware of the legend of Chaar Sahibzaade and inspire generations to uphold truth and justice. The response was overwhelming, with 21 thoughtful and creative entries submitted by students from PGDG&C and B.Ed. Semester I & II.

Participants expressed creative thoughts to highlight the courage and sacrifice of Sahibzaade through their compositions. All volunteers emphasized the relevance of their sacrifice in present time by inspiring others to remain unwavering in time of challenges and adversities. The winners were awarded cash prizes to recognize their efforts and motivate their creative pursuits. Kinshuk Roll No. 242 B.Ed. 1st year bagged first position, Harpreet Kaur Roll No.214 second position and Jasmine Kaur Roll No. 02 B.Ed. 2nd year and Parash Sharma Roll No. 903 PGDG&C third position in the competition. The organizing committee expressed gratitude to all participants and judges.
